WASHINGTON says Secretary Hoover's candidacy will open officially next week, after the Republican committee meeting.

Vice-President Dawes, it is said, is "for Lowden," and will hand the presidential nomination to that friend of the farmer.

In June, 1928, however, General Dawes may feel like the western hotel keeper, told by an English tourist to prepare immediately a "porterhouse steak, two inches thick, with broiled mushrooms and sliced tomatoes on either side of it." The hotel owner said, "Young man, if I had anything like that I would eat it myself."

All records broken in yesterday's payment of dividends and interest totalling $490,000,000. That is one of the prosperity signs that count.

This country is shipping out much more gold than it takes in and holds, "earmarked," large sums to gold supposed to be reserved for Poland, now in trouble with Lithuania and menaced by Russia.

That's no idle menace, for while the Big Bear talks peace and suggests scrapping all armaments, the same Bear has an army of 100,000.

Pray that our "earmarked" gold and other lendings to Europe's fighting funds, may not compel us later to get into another war and lend somebody ten billion uncollectable dollars again.

No wonder stock exchange seats go up. Mr. Simmons, president of the Wall Street Stock Exchange, says there is no limit, except the sky to New York's financial future. Securities listed on the exchange were worth on September first eighty-two thousand six hundred and sixty-seven million dollars, and have gone up many millions since.

Those millions go back and forth over the ticker-tape buyer to seller, and the patient broker gets his little one-eighths. A seat on the stock exchange ought to be worth $1,000,000.

THOUSANDS STORM HUB FORD PLANTS Calles Tried to Bribe American Press

PRES. CALLES ORDERED SYNDICATE AND TWO EDITORS PAID $100,000

By JOHN PAGE
Copyright, 1927, by Washington Herald
Washington, Dec. 2.—Efforts of the Mexican President and Government to influence the American press by orders for money payments are revealed in today's Boston Evening American and associated Hearst newspapers. These disclosures, as the others which preceded, are supported by documents from the secret archives of the Mexican Government.

The attempts to influence American newspapers and periodicals were made approximately a year ago, when President Coolidge most needed American support in the press of his distinctly American policies.

At that time President Coolidge intervened in Nicaragua to prevent the overthrow of a pro-American government thereby a coalition of "Liberal" Nicaraguans and others recruited and financed by the Calles government. In previous instalments of this series we have shown how right our President was in his belief that the Nicaraguan revolution was backed by Calles' support, moral and financial.

To influence the press in certain quarters against our own government's policy, Calles ordered payment of the following sums:

1. $50,000 to an American newspaper syndicate for the purpose of "conducting enemy propaganda."
2. $25,000 to the editor of a periodical.
3. A second $25,000 to the editor of a second periodical.

President Calles in the cases of the two periodicals actually signed orders to his treasury department making these sums payable to the editors named in a photograph to attorney.

It was understood that the client mentioned is a former Chicago society woman who lost part of her left ear in an automobile accident in Europe two years ago. The woman hopes to have the operation performed in Chicago and will keep matter strictly confidential. Applicant must be young, not over 25 years of age, light-skinned. Applicant will submit name.

FAINTS AS JURY SAYS 'INNOCENT'

Mrs. Gertrude Frazier Gibbons sank back unconscious when the foreman of the jury, before which she was tried for slaying her husband, said, "Not guilty." With her are seen Mrs. Mary Madeiros, her sister; Mrs. C. Murphy, mastron; Ray Cuttle and Frank Silva, her attorney.

HAPGOOD SACCO RIOT CASE GIVEN TO JURY

The cases of Powers Hapgood and Sacco Carvotti, charged with causing trouble at a Sacco-Venetti meeting on the jury today in Suffolk Superior Court. An early verdict was expected.

Hapgood, a young Harvard graduate living in Indianapolis, was charged with causing and planning to cause a riot and attacking a woman who had arrested Hapgood.

JACK PICKFORD IN RUM CASE AFTER SPEEDING

Compton, Cal. Dec. 2 (A.P.)—A charge of possession of liquor was declared they were going only 46 and that he was merely hurrying home after a film review in this Los Angeles suburb.
Jack Pickford was formerly the husband of Mattie Miller. Four years ago he figured in a Los Angeles liquor inquiry, testifying as a witness before a Federal Grand Jury which was investigating the activities of an alleged bootlegging ring. Checks bearing Pickford's signature were found on men arrested in that case, according to the authorities.

3 WITNESSES BACK SLAYING STORY TOLD BY MRS. LILLIENDAHL

Mays Landing, Dec. 2.—Three witnesses, a man, a woman and a boy, testified at the Lilliendahl-Besch murder trial today that they had seen two negroes in an auto near the spot where Dr. Lilliendahl was slain.

This testimony substantiates the story told by Mrs. Lilliendahl, the accused widow, who claims her doctor-husband was slain by colored men.

It was the hardest blow struck at the State's case since the defense opened. Both Mrs. Lilliendahl and Willis Besch, co-defendant, swapped confident smiles as their counsel laid this evidence before the jury.
Mrs. Lilliendahl, of Minto's, N. J., a train operator at Windsor Junction, was the woman who testified about the negroes. On Sept. 15th, she said she was driving alone the "murder road" when she came to an opening in the woods. "It was at a turn in the road," she continued, "and I saw two men step out. I felt a little afraid, so I stepped out of my car."
The men were negroes. One of them stepped out into the road, looking as one hand for me to stop. When I dashed away he held up both hands. I had to reverse my car to avoid hitting him. The other was standing by the side of the road.

100,000 RUSH TO FORD NEW CAR SHOWS HERE

More than 100,000 men and women will have passed through the showrooms of the two local Ford plants before the doors are locked at 10 p. m. tonight, according to Ford company officials.
Great lines of prospective buyers of the new Ford car and others merely curious to see the new model stretched along Memorial Drive, Cambridge, and Middlesex streets, East Somerville, before the big plants were thrown open today.
In Cambridge the place was opened at 8:30 and in the first hour 5,000 persons passed the two models on exhibition there, with the crowd outside increasing every minute, as automobiles and trolleys were removed of their loads.
It had been planned to open the East Somerville doors at 2 o'clock, but when the early arriving Ford officials saw the thousands waiting before 8 o'clock it was decided to throw open the doors at that hour. Please Turn to Page 5, Column 1.

MRS. GIBBONS DAZED AS SHE IS SET FREE

She who wavered to face the ordeal of trial for life.
"Thank them, oh, thank them," she said when she realized she was free. "Bring me my child."

When Mrs. Gertrude Frazier Gibbons, a girl of 22, was found in a courtroom filled with 500 spectators, at 2 o'clock this morning, the young widow went into a daze and just to be carried out of the room. Please Turn to Page 5, Column 2.

21 HURT AS HUB TO N. Y. BUS CRASHES INTO POLE

Three persons were seriously injured and eighteen others, many of them Boston folks, were less seriously hurt when a Boston to New York bus, heavily loaded, after skidding on the wet roadway, crashed into a telegraph pole just outside Norwalk, Conn., today.
Chester Patis of No. 40 Waverley street, Salem, suffered a fractured skull and physicians at the local hospital hold out little hope for his life.
Daniel Scarsella, of No. 149 Main street, Malden, suffered a broken leg and possible internal injuries. The other victim in hospital is John McGowan, New York city, also suffered a fractured jaw.
Others, all treated at Norwalk Hospital for cuts and bruises and then discharged, are: William O. Lovinger, 45, of No. 37 Timber road, Arlington; Miss Catherine Narent, No. 107 Please Turn to Page 5, Column 2.

GIVEN 25 YEARS FOR LARCENY OF $7,500
Robert J. Davidson, brought back from Cleveland today, was sentenced to from 25 to 35 years on two indictments of larceny of $7,500 by Judge Folsom in district Superior Court.

XMAS GIFT FOR COOLIDGE; READERS TO CHOOSE

'Rivals' Pals in Life Battle

BOSTON AMERICAN
BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1927

NOW SOMEBODY'LL SLEEP!

Roosevelt street, Dorchester, residents heaved a sigh of relief today when the Animal Rescue League, as shown here, lived up to its name and rescued a cat which had been treed by a dog Tuesday and refused to come down, having made three nights miserable.

COOLIDGE GIFT FROM BOSTON AMERICAN

"Merry Christmas—to His Excellency President Calvin Coolidge from the Boston Evening American."

The democratic old gentleman with the white whiskers who pays his annual visit to Christian civilization the world over on the night of December 24, will carry a very special package in his bag this year. It will bear the above inscription and he will drop it down the White House chimney as he passes over Washington, D. C.

The Boston Evening American is going to send President Coolidge some little remembrance of the season. YOU are going to choose his Christmas gift. Boston, more than any other city of the country, claims President Coolidge. Here in the State House he served as a legislative member; here he occupied the gubernatorial chair; here at the old Adams House he lived during those years of service; and from here he went to the nation's Capitol, as Vice-President and President.

Although it is not quite the usual custom to announce what one pays for Christmas gifts, the Boston Evening American is planning to spend $50 for the token of the season to be sent the nation's chief executive.

We give you the price in order to narrow the range of your suggestion. Please Turn to Page 4, Column 3.

CAT, TREED BY DOG, STAYS UP THREE DAYS

A cat may look at a King or at a resident of Rosseter street, Dorchester, but he's got no right to keep looking from his mournful perch in a tree for three days, or nights. At least so say the residents of Rosseter street.

Last Tuesday the nomad Tom was treed by a dog. The dog remained beneath the tree, patiently waiting for some three hours, but the cat wouldn't budge. The dog gave up in disgust and went away, but still the cat stayed.

He did a mean job of water-walking on Tuesday night. Wednesday afternoon a score of boys "shinnied" up the tree and tried to dislodge Tom, but the animal spat at them and barred his claws.

He caterwauled Wednesday night. Yesterday the boys went up the tree, armed this time with catnip, but the attempt to bribe Tom failed utterly.

He caterwauled last night. Today Station 11 was flooded with complaints from citizens, who brought the removal of the feline for its sake and theirs. By the next morning neither police nor fire departments care to call out to extract cats from positions of peril and the word was sent on to the Animal Rescue League, the officials saying that rescuers would be sent out later in the day.

Mrs. Lilliendahl is expected to take the stand in her own behalf in her battle.

Seeks Song Honors

A great future is predicted for Miss Marie Healy. New Hampshire's champion in the Atwater Kent national radio song competition.

NEW HAMPSHIRE SINGER AFTER RADIO FAME

Manchester, N. H., Dec. 2.—A tiny slip of a girl, not yet 19, and already far along the narrow and seldom traveled road to fame, wins her good-bye-for-now to the home for tonight.

And two thousand of those in whose midst she "grew up" will crowd the Practical Arts Auditorium down as much by their desire to wish her God speed as by the magic of her golden voice.

Marie Healy, five feet, two inches from the soles of her little all-occasional feet to the crest of her chestnut curls, is giving a concert. Then she starts from home in Taylor street for New York and Washington, first to broadcast again over the radio in the finale of the Atwater Kent Foundation contest for radio artists and scholarship. And then—back to her educating study.

Already crowned the young woman champion of the district including New England, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. Miss Healy stands an excellent chance of capturing the highest Atwater Kent Prize.

To See New Ford Cars

"FIRST COME, FIRST IN"

WAITING CHANCES TO GET INTO LINE FOR ADMISSION TO THE BIG SHOW

That was the order of the day at the Somerville plant of the Ford Motor Company when, long before 9 o'clock, thousands were in line to see the models of new cars.

It had been announced that the big Somerville plant show rooms would not be opened until 9 o'clock, but so great was the crowd outside it was decided to open at 8 a. m. Then prospective buyers and the merely curious were admitted at the rate of 4,000 an hour. It was announced the show would continue till 10:30 tonight. So 4,000 an hour there, and upwards of the same number in Cambridge, meant more than 100,000 for the day. And there's another day to-morrow. This is a picture only of the crowd, and does not show the tremendous jam of their autos that clogged the streets in Somerville, just as they did at the plant in Cambridge.

RAIN AND GOLD FOR HUB; SNOW IN VT. AND N. H.

With snow falling heavily in Vermont and New Hampshire and a cold rain in Boston and Massachusetts, a real winter week-end was predicted today.

Montreal reported that snow which commenced to fall at midnight had made dangerous the roads and what sidewalks were left by the snow, and gave every indication of continuing throughout the day.

At Keene, N. H., with the mercury at 30 and dropping steadily, a heavy snowfall began shortly after noon, about the same time that the rainfall began locally.

Gold gave little good in Eastern New York State, where snow is falling. The official weather man today indicated a strenuous weekend of rain, wind and cold for Greater Boston.

The sudden cold snap which reduced the mercury here 12 degrees over the past 24 hours moved into New Brunswick through the night but its chilling influence was still felt here today as the temperature

WOMAN SIGNS NERN MURDER WARRANT

For the first time in the history of the Malden court, a murder warrant was signed by a woman today when Emily A. Mather, second assistant clerk, affixed her signature to a warrant for the arrest of William Nern, alias William N. Gendall, or Medford, who hanged his wife to death in their Middlesex avenue, Medford home.

The application was made by Sergeant John A. Buttram of the Medford police.

Nern, who cut his own throat, stabbed himself under the heart and drank poison after slaying his wife, is still in a dangerous condition at the Lawrence Memorial hospital, Medford, with no chance now for cure.

500 NEGROES IN RAIN CHEER AS GARVEY EXITS

New Orleans, Dec. 2—Five hundred negroes stood in a pouring rain here today and shouted: "God save our President!" as Marcus Garvey, self-styled "President of Africa," boarded the steamer Baramacca and sailed for Colon.

This negro, whose sentence recently was commuted after he had served more than two years in Atlanta Federal penitentiary on a technical charge of using the mails to defraud, will be taken in barge from Colon. He had been ordered deported by the government.

Garvey carried a silver hat of malacca cane and wore a smartly tailored light brown, double-breasted suit. Negroes held an umbrella over him as he crossed the wharf.

GIRL'S AN-YANKEE CANNOT SPEAK UNITED STATES

Maria Curcio, 17 years old, stopped off the passengers of the Italian liner President Wilson at Commonwealth Pier today and proudly announced that she was an American, though she made the announcement in Italian, and admitted that she could neither read, nor write English.

It was week's proved that the dark-eyed girl had been born in the North End and lived here until she was five years old when she went to Italy with her father and has lived there since.

All doubt was removed when the girl's mother, Mrs. Rudolph Carcio, stepped to the gangplank and embraced the daughter who had not been seen for 12 years. Maria's mother said she was delighted to see her and the girl to their home at 30 Porter street, East Boston, where she will live from now on.

Passengers on the President Wilson delighted to tell how Maria was anxious to prove her Americanism by showing loyalty around her shipmates. She showed in the shape of a star on her lower arm and a small flag on her turned up her dress, and declared that she would have her hair colored as soon as she reached Boston.

WILLIAMSBURG WARNED OF DEFICIT IN REVENUE

A revenue deficit of $7,524.21 was today called to the attention of the board of directors of the City of Williamsburg by the State Auditor, John N. Wadell, director of accounts in the State Department of Finance. Wadell declared this deficit due to overpayment of appropriations made for which there were no appropriations and because of the action of the town in authorizing the assessors in 1926 to use the tax law on January 1 of that year to reduce the tax levy.

MAHONEY ASKS HUB DOGS BE RESTRAINED 90 DAYS

Dr. F. X. Mahoney, Health Commissioner of Boston, today notified Public Health Commissioner George H. Buehler that he has sent to Mayor Nichols an order for the restraint of dogs in Boston for a 90-day period with a request that the order be passed by the City Council and approved by the Mayor. The action of Dr. Mahoney is in conformity with the order made by the officials and police chiefs at a conference called by Dr. Buehler at the State House on Friday.

COOLIDGE IS SPEAKER AT NEW MEX. STONE SERVICE

Washington, Dec. 2 (A.P.)—President Coolidge occupied the place of prominence today in ceremonies at the dedication of the New Mexico State Capitol building in the Washington monument. Senator Jones of that state presided, and address by the chief executive was broadcast by eleven stations.

He declared the tribute another evidence of the unity which binds the forty-eight States into one nation.

NEW FORD CAR SHOW TIRES 100,000

There 4,000 visitors passed through during the first hour.

EXTRA POLICE CALLED.

While police protection had been arranged for at both places, nobody had expected the human avalanches that descended in the early morning hours, and frantic calls for more officers were sent to police headquarters of Cambridge and Somerville, and to the Metropolitan District police station near the two fairs.

Each person entering the Cambridge plant was given a booklet with accurate of the new Ford models in colors, and information about the latest features. The first thing that these entering saw was a huge sign of Henry Ford, placed on the wall above the cars.

They saw only ten of the new models in Boston.

The two an exhibition at Cambridge were the sport coupe and the touring sedan. Those who were curious to see the others were told the Somerville plant was the only place they could be seen.

SALES START NEXT WEEK

While some orders for cars were taken at Cambridge, Otto C. Randall, assistant sales manager in charge of an army of men and women clerks and information advisers, told all that sales would not start until next week, and that deliveries would not start before January 1 in any event, and even then no date of delivery could be guaranteed.

The officials were amazed at the delivery, one man asking if it would be possible to deliver a car in Gray den, England, in time for it to be an opportune Christmas gift, and another asking the same question regarding a delivery in Paris.

It was as apparent that Santa Claus will not travel in a new model Ford this year, and the Christmas presents must be made in the form of sales slips.

MANY WOMEN ATTEND.

In Somerville there were more women in the waiting crowds than were the men. Cambridge General Manager W. A. Francis and his corps of assistants took many orders there, though again the buyers were cautioned that delivery could not be guaranteed on any specified date.

The crowd was well handled by Sergeant Thomas Walsh of the Somerville police and his men and a squad of Metropolitan police. As soon as the show room was crowded the doors on Myrtle street were closed until there was room for an other invasion.

Just before 10 o'clock the crowd became so dense that a second show room, which it had not been intended to use, was pressed into service.

Souvenir Ford Paris Stolen at Detroit Show

Detroit, Dec. 2 (A.P.)—Souvenir hunters had their innings today when Henry Ford's new car was presented to the public in a special exhibit at the Highland Park branch of the Ford Motor Company.

Small parts of the new car had been mounted on boards which hung around the walls. In the half hour of display all of these parts were stolen. A repetition of the souvenir pilfering was prevented when guards were brought in.

It is still more than in charge of the new car exhibit in Convention Hall, where Detroit's automobile show is usually held, announced that a door check showed 31,000 persons had viewed the new models. Police were required to handle the traffic near the hall.

Although orders for more than 200,000 units have been received by Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, said that no deliveries are being made other than for display purposes. Present production is restricted to about fifty-five or seventy units a day, he stated, but production will be increased as rapidly as possible.

London, Dec. 2 (A.P.)—The new Ford automobile went on exhibition in London today. A Ford official stated that orders for 4,000 cars were received today, 10,000 of which were for immediate delivery.

TAMMANY DENOUNCES AL SMITH FUND DRIVES

New York, Dec. 2 (A.P.)—A warning against "any political mobilization, periodical, pageant, entertainment, ball, reception, bazaar or war like other forms of public gathering promoted on the pretext of collecting funds to aid in the nomination of Governor Alfred E. N. E. DEAD LINE ON CHRISTMAS MAIL DEC. 18

The mailing date dead line for Christmas mail is December 18. The postmaster today set in motion the machinery at Postoffice Square, which is perfecting to expedite to its local and distant destinations the annual deluge of Christmas mail.

We are prepared to handle the greatest volume of Christmas business in the history of the Boston post office. Postmaster Baker declared in opening the "Mail Early" campaign, "that its prompt delivery depends entirely upon the response of the public."

More than 1,500 substitute carriers and clerks have been notified to await the emergency call, while 200 fast trucks are ready to begin work.

There will, of course, be one delivery on Christmas morning, but the postmaster today warned isolated mailers that even matter deposited in boxes on Christmas Eve in the city and suburbs stood very little chance of reaching the carriers for the last-minute trip.

To facilitate the mailing of Christmas packages, special postal stations will be established in the big downtown department stores where the competent clerks will receive the holiday gifts and advise a trip for the purchaser to his or her local office.

The following are the dates set as the time limit for mailing of matter destined for delivery before Christmas Day:

- Dec. 18—For delivery in Wisconsin, Washington State and Oregon.
- Dec. 19—For delivery in Montana, California, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland.
- Dec. 20—For local delivery.

Delivery order to be delivered to the Bureau Postal Station by Christmas Day must be mailed not later than Monday, Dec. 18.

SCRATCH ON CHEST FROM WIFE GIVES HIM DIVORCE

A scratch on his chest made by his wife, won a divorce for Edward R. C. Morris today in Suffolk Probate Court.

An annulment decree was granted by Judge McCool on the petition of Susan Dickerson against William E. Dickerson, also known as John J. Wilkinson. It was shown that Mrs. Dickerson brought a complaint against her husband for negligence, but he was found not guilty because it appeared he had another wife living. Dickerson was subsequently found guilty of polygamy. Martina E. Kennedy was given a decree of divorce from her husband, Albert Cecil Kennedy, for cruel and abusive treatment.

GROVELAND ROBBERY INDICTMENTS DROPPED

Salem, Dec. 2 (A.P.)—Indictments against Leo Nolin of South Groveland and Herman A. Reed of Waterbury, Ct., for the robbery of Clarence Hinson at Groveland, March 7 were dismissed in the Superior Court here today. District Attorney William Clark said this was done because Nolin is serving a life sentence in State prison and there was insufficient evidence to convict Reed. Nolin was convicted of murder in the second degree for the shooting of William Griffin while robbing Griffin's store in Haverhill March 7. Reed was acquitted of a murder charge and Mary Cecilia, who turned State's evidence, was found guilty as an accessory, but her case was placed on file.

LEWIS SEES WORLD'S HOPE IN SOVIET EXPERIMENT

Moscow, Dec. 2 (U.S.S.R.)—Sinclair Lewis, American novelist, expressed the belief today that if the Soviet "experiment" fails the world will be left a thousand years.

Lewis has been in Moscow four days and declares "the Soviet is the greatest experiment ever, the creation of a state upon the basis of labor instead of slavery."

The novelist said the "fact" many years may be necessary to establish the state does not lessen his sympathy towards it.

BATTLE BLIND MAN IN LAMBS' CLUB RIOT

There was a riot at the Lambs' Club in Lansdowne street early today, as the Back Bay police were called.

The Back Bay police and four members of Captain Livingston's "riding squad," armed with shotguns, responded on the double. Beauty Patrolman McGrath, finger bitten, Patrolman Flaherty, whose leg was broken, and a blind man, giving aid to a blind man, were charged with drunkenness.

Here, then, follows the tale: SMASHES GLASS IN DOOR. About 2 a. m. a taxicab drove up to the Lambs' Club and deposited passengers, a blind man, who police charge also was nearly blind drunk, on the sidewalk outside. The blind man carried a cane, and with its aid made his way to the door and rang the bell for entrance.

But the blind man could not convince the doorman that he had the right to enter the club. He could not produce credentials.

Arguments waxed warm and in the heat of the moment the blind man raised his cane twice and smashed the glass in the door of the Lambs' Club, startling patrons and attendants alike.

CALL IN POLICE. Someone, none known who, telephoned the police there was a riot. Twelve policemen responded. They arrived at the Lambs' Club on the run. The blind man was still there, insisting on his right to "get into a night club if I want to."

As the police came up the doorman, with a wave of his hand, indicated the "riot."

The police action closed in. The blind man went into action. The action was sharp but brief.

First the blind man got a teeth trip on Patrolman McGrath's finger. Patrolman Flaherty went to the rescue and was soon hopping about the sidewalk, nursing sore shins.

BOOKED AS DRUNK. A strategic advance from the rear did the trick. One policeman obtained the blind man's cane. The rest of them got the blind man. The procession to the Back Bay station started, where the blind man was booked for "drunkenness."

He gave his name as "Johnson," along with the information that it wasn't his right name. "Johnson," he said, he was a college graduate. He had a large amount of money on him and was fairly well dressed.

JOHN D. "FEELING FINE" AT HIS WINTER HOME Ormond Beach, Fla., Dec. 2 (A.P.).—John D. Rockefeller, 69-year-old oil king, was at home today at "The Casements," where he probably will reside until April when the Rockefeller family usually moves back north.

Mr. Rockefeller told newspapermen he was "feeling fine, better than before." Sixty new times are now expected to make their appearance on the streets and the golf links. For Mr. Rockefeller's frequent discharges his celebrated memoranda to those he encounters while making his set and unmet eight holes a day.

MEXICAN FORCES ALMOST CAPTURE REBEL GENERAL Mexico City, Dec. 2 (A.P.).—Federal forces under General Boltran almost succeeded in capturing the rebel general, Hector Almada, at Corral Nuevo, near Aguascalientes, special dispatches from Vera Cruz state.

Almada, the rebel chieftain, defeated and fled following the attack after a battle Saturday in which the rebels were dispersed. Although they abandoned their horses and arms, the rough terrain aided them to escape.

WALTHAM AND BELMONT TO SHARE SEWER COST Construction of a sewer to cost $113,000 for disposal of sewage from the Metropolitan Hospital is to be built on land in Belmont, Waltham and Lexington, was recommended to the Legislature today by a State commission that has studied the problem. Belmont and Waltham will benefit from the sewer, it was stated, and it was recommended that the cost be borne jointly by the State, the town of Belmont and the city of Waltham.

NATIONAL DRY COUNCIL OUT AGAINST AL SMITH

Washington, Dec. 2 (U.S.A.).—The legislative conference of the National Temperance Council today decided actively against the presidential candidacy of Governor Al Smith of New York. The conference represents thirty-one national dry and reform organizations, including the Anti-Slavery League.

A committee was appointed to call a prohibition convention here in January to map out the policies to be followed by the drys in the presidential campaign. Good jobs do not wait the street. They are laid in the Bureau of Census. See Help Wanted—Classifications 80 and 81.

Beach Was Waving to Her at Death Hour, She Says

Mr. Landon, N. J., Dec. 2.—Mrs. Jane A. LED PITT TO TOP

Nobody wishes when it comes time to consider Capt. Welch of Pittsburgh for the All-American honors. The Pitt back is one of the leading backs of the year. If he isn't picked for chief honors he receives honorable mention. Welch will lead his Panthers against Leland Stanford in Tournament of Roses, on Jan. 2. Welch is a rare bit of backfield flesh.

Today
Mr. Rockefeller's Choice
Mr. Ford's 64 Years
Mr. Hoover's Bright Hopes
Mrs. Taylor's Song Fear
By Arthur Brisbane

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR., told the No. 28 Broadway Club, all employees of Standard Oil, that the four important qualities are CHARACTER, INTEGRITY, CLEAN LIVING, SINGLE-MINDEDNESS OF PURPOSE.

Mr. Rockefeller's father, who built one of the greatest fortunes and uses it fighting disease and ignorance, selected two things, important in material success, PATIENCE AND ECONOMY.

Which is most important—character, integrity, clean living or singleness of purpose? Singleness of purpose brings success. Character and clean living make it worth while. Integrity is the foundation of the other three.

Useful thought is prompted by defining and making, according to their importance, the qualities within us. Saint Paul, 12th Chapter, 1st Corinthians, "Faith, Hope, Charity, these three; but the greatest of these is Charity."

Bacon's three aids to mental efficiency, quoted from memory, are "Reading makes a full man. Writing makes an exact man. Speaking makes a ready man." Bacon's three should interest young salesmen.

At London's first exhibition of the Ford car the crowd was so great it was difficult to elbow one's way into the room. The low prices amaze the British and Dutch British manufacturers. Ford, with plants in Paris, England, Ireland, Peking and elsewhere, will operate inside the tariff walls.

In one particular respect the new Ford is better than the Lincoln. Its windshield is made of non-shattering glass, which does not fly about in case of collision.

On the first day London ordered 6,000 new Ford cars, and 450,000 new Ford cars have been ordered already in the United States.

The Canadian demand is proportionately as great. Stock in the Ford Company of Canada has gone up $400 a share.

"Singleness of purpose," which Mr. Rockefeller recommends, seems to have worked well in Henry Ford's case.

What interests men most middle age is the fact that Henry Ford, for thirty years, has worked under terrific pressure, day and night, eclipsing in achievement every industrialist, manufacturer and big business man that ever lived, is able at sixty-four years of age to throw aside and junk the greatest collections of tools and machinery in the world and start new. He has closed down a business that would have paid him millions of profit a year, had he been content to let it "gradually die out."

And at sixty-four, with the energy of twenty-five, he creates a new, gigantic business, doing that which his friends and company partners will "not have thought possible."

Secretary Hoover, who has traveled up and down the United States, investigating crime, came Tuesday to Page 16, Column 6.

Calles Ordered U. S. Clergymen Paid $210,000

N. Y. MEXICAN AGENT WROTE PRESIDENT OF $5,000,000 OIL FUND

By JOHN PAGE
Washington, D. C.—The Hearst papers today publish Mexican Presidential orders for propaganda payments to two American clergymen, a Protestant minister and a rabbi; also official correspondence showing an attempt to resurrect the old bugaboo of American oil interests plotting revolution in Mexico.

President Calles, the Mexican executive, issued two orders for the payment of money to the Protestant clergymen, one for $10,000 on May 15, 1926, and the other for $50,000, on February 15, 1927. The Hearst papers have the original orders, signed by Calles, with the name of the proposed recipient intact.

These orders, in English translations, follow:

To the citizen secretary of the treasury and public credit.

You will please order that the treasurer general of the Nation to issue a pay-voucher in favor of _____ for the sum of $10,000, to be delivered by him to the Reverend _____, as payment for lectures in favor of Mexico.

You will order that a receipt be obtained from the interested person for this sum, making the corresponding notation and charging the item to secret expenditures of _____.

FIND HAPGOOD GUILTY ON SPEAKING CHARGE

After deliberating 24 hours and 15 minutes a Superior Court jury today found Powers Hapgood, Harvard graduate, guilty of making a mob address without a permit at a Race-Valley protest meeting on the Common last August.

The jurors failed to agree on a verdict on a charge of going on which Hapgood was also tried.

But the case of George Curran, tried with Hapgood, they disagreed on both charges, finding and acquitting a policeman with intent to rescue a prisoner.

Hapgood was not guilty verdict.

BEACH ADMITS WRITING JUST 'FRIENDLY' NOTES TO MRS. LILLIENDAHL

Mays Landing, N. J., Dec. 3.—A solemn denial that he had killed Dr. A. William Lillien Dahl or knew who did, coupled with admissions of a "friendly correspondence" with the doctor's wife before the slaying, featured the testimony of Willis Beach in his own defense today.

Beach, a gray-haired little chicken farmer, is on trial with Mrs. Lillien Dahl for the murder of the doctor.

By the testimony of his own eyes, Beach admitted that he saw the doctor on the day of the slaying.

Beach, whose property is the largest tract of the time in Mays Landing, was examined by the State's attorney, Mr. J. J. London, who asked him to identify the doctor as the man who had written the "friendly" notes to Mrs. Lillien Dahl.

Beach testified that he had written the notes, but that he had never seen the doctor.
